Young ICCA and CAM-CCBC have arranged accommodation for 20 participants in São Paulo for the nights of 22 and 23 October in a centrally located hotel provided free of charge (room-sharing) for Young ICCA members participating in the Workshop. Each participant is required to arrange their own transportation to and from São Paulo and within the city itself, including incidental expenses. Participants are also responsible for meeting any immigration and visa requirements necessary to attend the event.

Application and registration: Although there is already a waiting list for the event of non-members, there are still 10 spots left for Young ICCA Members. Registration is free of charge. If you wish to participate send an e-mail with the subject line "Young ICCA São Paulo Registration" including your CV and details of your current position to both Bruno Guandalini (bg@sampaio.com.br) and Fabiana Leite (fabiana@eleonoracoelho.com.br). Please indicate whether you would like to request accommodation.
